Kaleidoscope magazine congratulates the 2010 members of the Cuarenta Cuarenta Club (Hispanic Forty-Forty Club) for their amazing achievements. Kaleidoscope magazine, each year spotlights these young professionals, ages 40 and younger, who have been recognized for their accomplishments by their peers and mentors.

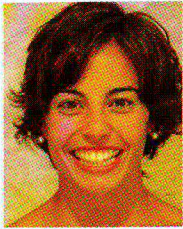

They are very talented and motivated, dedicated to their careers and their communities. These individuals are among the area's future leaders, representing financial institutions, education, entrepreneurs, communications, social services and safety forces, to name a few.

These Cuarenta Cuarenta Club members have worked hard to make a lifelong commitment to their careers, succeeding through perseverance, passion and sacrifice. They also give generously to their communities, both financially and emotionally. Each professional in his or her own way acts as a role model who helps make Greater Cleveland a better place to live and work. Some have already made significant contributions to their communities. Others have the drive and potential to make a difference.

Kaleidoscope believes these young Hispanic professionals serve as visionaries to inspire all young people to walk similar paths and achieve similar goals. Acting as catalysts for change, they can teach valuable lessons for success open to anyone with the drive to pursue it.

Please join in giving all of these Hispanic men and women a well-deserved round of applause. Our sincere congratulations to the Cuarenta Cuarenta Club, Class of 2010.
