Ohio Inorganic Weekend 2010 at OSU

Dear Colleague,

It's just a note to remind you that the Ohio State University Department of Chemistry is hosting the 2010 Ohio Inorganic Weekend. This year's event will be held October 29th and 30th, 2010. We will host a poster session on the Friday evening, and the talks on Saturday.

Please send to us (e-mail: OIW@chemistry.ohio-state.edu) the names of students/postdocs attending the meeting (indicate whether graduate, undergraduate or postdoctoral), and specify the students giving oral presentation and the students giving poster presentations. We ask that you send this information by September 30.

We look forward to hearing from you soon!
