

CASE CONVERSATIONS ON CHILDREN IN RESEARCH AND POLICY

This continuing seminar series fosters interdisciplinary discussions and relationships among Case faculty, students, staff, and members of the wider community interested in children and childhood.

Except for those noted *, all sessions will be held in Clark Hall 206.

Please join us from 11:45 - 1 p.m.

Tuesday, September 12, 2006

Doula Support: What's Good for Mother is Good for Baby

John H. Kennell, M.D.

Professor Emeritus of Pediatrics

Susan K. McGrath, Ph.D.

Psychologist

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

Children with Psychiatric Problems: Achievements and Challenges of Pediatric Psychopharmacology Research

Robert L. Findling, M.D.

Professor

Department of Pediatrics and Psychiatry

Tuesday, October 10, 2006

Election 2006: What's at Stake for Kids? A panel discussion of the election issues affecting children and youth.

Co-sponsored with the Center on Urban Poverty & Social Change, MSASS

Moderator: Amy Nicholls Swanson

Executive Director

Voices for Children of Greater Cleveland

*Spartan Room, Thwing Center

Tuesday, March 6, 2007

Making a Little Go a Long Way: The Effects of Incentive Programs on Student Performance

Eric P. Bettinger, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor

Department of Economics

Tuesday, April 17, 2007

Children's Health Policy

Participants to be announced.

*Spartan Room, Thwing Center

Tuesday, November 14, 2006

Fighting the Rising Tide of Pediatric Obesity

Leslie J. Heinberg, Ph.D.

Associate Professor

Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics

A light lunch will be served. All are welcome.

For more information, call or e-mail the Schubert Center for Child Studies.