

Nicole Marie Deming
MetroHealth Medical Center
2500 MetroHealth Drive
Cleveland, OH 44109-1998

EDUCATION

Case Western Reserve University School of Law, Cleveland, Ohio

J.D., Concentrations: Health Law with Honors and International Law with Honors, May 2008

Honors and Activities

Milton A. Kramer Law Clinic Center, Health Law Clinic, 2007-2008

Case School of Law Leadership Award, 2008

Richard A. and Brandon S. Collier Award for outstanding achievement in the Law-Medicine curriculum

Arthur E. Petersilge Award for excellence in the study of Wills and Trusts

CALI Awards: International Business Organizations, Wills and Trusts, and ERISA

University of Washington School of Medicine, Seattle, Washington

M.A. Bioethics, June 2005

Honors and Activities

Labe Scheinberg Award, Consortium of Multiple Sclerosis Centers

Student Genomics Forum Student Advisory Committee, A Community Forum on Genetics: DNA, Health and Social Justice, Sponsored by the National Human Genome Research Institute

Curriculum Reviewer, Northwest Association for Biomedical Research Ethics in the Classroom Science Curriculum

Student Member University of Washington Medical Center Ethics Committee

Facilitator, "Data Management and Ownership," Biomedical Research Integrity Series Discussion Group

Senator, University of Washington's Graduate and Professional Student Senate

St. Mary's College of Maryland, St. Mary's City, Maryland

B.A. Biology & Philosophy, May 2001

Honors and Activities

Teaching Assistant, Developmental Biology and Introduction to Ethics

Beta Beta Beta, Biological Honors Society, Rho Gamma Chapter

Omicron Delta Kappa, Leadership Honors Society

EXPERIENCE

Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, Cleveland, Ohio

Assistant Professor of Bioethics

January 2009 to present

Assist with Clinical Ethics Program and Research Ethics at MetroHealth Medical Center, review research as a member of the Institutional Review Board at MetroHealth, serve as the Research Subject Advocate for NIH-funded Clinical Science Translational Collaborative project and teach bioethics classes for undergraduate and bioethics masters students.

Lawson Software, Inc., Saint Paul, Minnesota

Corporate Law Clerk

Summer 2007

Reviewed and negotiated sales contracts, created training materials for account executives, researched corporate governance issues, assisted with the filing of employee immigration forms, and drafted corporate policies.

Federal Judicial Externship, Cleveland, Ohio

The Honorable Nancy A. Vecchiarelli, United States Magistrate Judge

Student Clerkship

Fall 2006

Drafted bench memoranda for social security cases and regularly discussed issues with Judge and law clerks; improved written and oral communications through detailed critiques; and attended pretrial conferences, settlement negotiations, evidentiary and sentencing hearings, and trials.

Nicole Marie Deming
MetroHealth Medical Center
2500 MetroHealth Drive
Cleveland, OH 44109-1998

Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio

Research Assistant

2006 to 2007

Researched definitions of risks, benefits and assessment tools in human subjects research in therapeutic and enhancement research for a study investigating Genetic Enhancement Research Guidelines funded by NIH.

University of Washington, Seattle, Washington

Department of Medical History and Ethics

Research Assistant

2003 to 2005

Created an interview guide, conducted interviews with Primary Care Physicians and summarized findings and coordinated efforts with existing research programs on informed decision making and prostate cancer screening to develop resources in the Seattle area for a project funded by CDC entitled: "Needs Assessment of Primary Care Physicians regarding Prostate Cancer Screening Discussions with Patients."

Compiled recruitment list and contact information of research subjects; coded transcript from interviews with researchers and draft a summary of findings; and participated in the writing and drafting of articles for journal submission for a study funded by NIH entitled: "Motivating Integrity in Research with Human Subjects."

Researched and developed content on ethical, legal, social and cultural issues associated with genetics in Primary Care for a web-based teaching tool for medical faculty and supervised curriculum review, coordinated meetings, and tracked correspondences for a project funded by HRSA entitled: "Genetics through a Primary Care Lens-Genetics Tools."

National Center for Ethics in Health Care, VA Puget Sound Health Care System, Seattle, Washington

Ethics Internship

Summer 2004

Assisted with statistical analysis of a multiple site survey on the staff's perception of the ethical environment of the facility and created summary reports and attended Ethics meetings and discussion groups for VA Puget Sound and the National Center for Ethics in Health Care.

The Environmental Education Center of Cuyahoga Valley National Park Association, Peninsula, Ohio

Program Assistant

2002 to 2003

Hosted Resident Schools and acted as liaison to visiting teachers and adult chaperones; created weekly schedules for Staff, Resident School Groups, and off-site programs; and worked with Graduate Faculty and Fellows from the University of Akron to develop and implement scientific research in K-12 classrooms.

Field Instructor

2001 to 2002

Taught environmental education to students grade K -12 and developed and implemented educational programs for high school students through Distance Learning Video Classrooms.

PUBLICATIONS

Incorporating Principles and Practical Wisdom in Research Ethics Education, Academic Medicine (January 2007)

Using the Lens of Relational Autonomy to Tackle Ethical Dilemmas, Consortium of Multiple Sclerosis Centers Journal (Abstract) (June 2005)

PRESENTATIONS

Using the Lens of Relational Autonomy to Tackle Ethical Dilemmas, Consortium of Multiple Sclerosis Centers, Orlando, Florida, June 2005

Principles, Practical Judgment and Human Subject Research, Department Seminar Presentation, Department of Medical History and Ethics, University of Washington School of Medicine, Seattle, Washington, May 2005