WHY WE STARTED VERYAPT

VeryApt was born from the simple realization that the small things about an apartment are often the most important: a friendly doorman, lots of sunlight in the living room, a running trail nearby, or that amazing hole-in-the-wall Thai restaurant across the street. We understand that the frustrations of apartment hunting are universal, but share a belief that it doesn't have to be. We know what makes an apartment truly feel like home is unique for each person and that's why our focus is on bringing you personalized recommendations based on timely, relevant, and real user reviews. We'll be there every step of the way to help you find your perfect apartment.

WHAT RESIDENTS THINK ABOUT UNIVERSITY CIRCLE

Review by CWRU Med Graduate student

The University Circle area is wonderful! You are a quick walk to University Circle has a ton of restaurants within walking distance which is nice. You will hear a lot of ambulances being so close to UH Main Campus, but I rotate at the hospital so you can't beat the location. There is often free street parking as well. I really enjoy living in University Circle and having the perks of CRWU close by.

Review by CWRU Med Graduate student

It's a wonderful neighborhood - walking distance to all the museums, botanical gardens, and some of the best restaurants in Cleveland. Also walking distance to a couple coffee shops and the CWRU library and student center, so ideal for studying. The best part: < 5 min commute to school and you get to avoid Cedar coming down the hill.

Little Italy

Live close to campus in a historic neighborhood

ABOUT LITTLE ITALY

Little Italy is a picturesque neighborhood with brick roads, tall trees, and charming Italian shops and restaurants. Most people tend to live in town homes in this area. The walk from Little Italy to campus is very manageable, and the Little Italy-University Circle RTA station is just down the road. The area has a homey feel to it and the crowd is a little older than some of the other university-focused areas.

WHAT RESIDENTS THINK ABOUT LITTLE ITALY

Review by CWRU Med Graduate student

While the outskirts of Little Italy leave a little bit to be desired and parking can occasionally be hard to find, the food and vibe are pretty great (and it's really close to CWRU). There is a park for dogs and kids and there is a ton of amazing pizza and Italian food. The culture here is strong. There is a bar called Leo's on Murray Hill Road. And the Murray Hill Market has (in my opinion) the world's best meatball sandwich. Highly recommend.

Review by CWRU Med Graduate student

Very safe! There is a park across the street, and it is lively with many people coming to enjoy the restaurants. Music plays on the street from different restaurants. Police arrive quickly if needed and campus police is close by. The only issue is that it is a little bit of a walk to the nearest grocery store. There is one right next door, but items are unusually expensive.

WHAT RESIDENTS THINK ABOUT CEDAR FAIRMOUNT

Review by CWRU Med Graduate student

Multiple choices for eating out (or getting take out), convenient grocery store, bank options, and gas station. Firestone is right there if you have car troubles and the Cleveland Heights fire station is blocks away. Can't beat the location, with how many great places are nearby. The new top of the hill project is being built, which will bring more options to the neighborhood. Highly recommend living here.

Review by CWRU Med Graduate student

Cedar-Fairmount is positioned well between 2 to 3 different buses that run directly to Case's medical school campus (plus points in between). 15 min walk to the red line train station. Only a few bars and restaurants nearby, but they are pretty good (Barrio, Vero, the Fairmount, nice local pub, Starbucks, Aladdin's, Bruegger's). Best thing is being a 5 min walk from Dave's supermarket.

"My wife and I have lived here for all years of medical school. Great location close to Cedar/Fairmount and in walking distance to Coventry and Little Italy. Excellent management and very responsive. 2 RTA bus lines located just outside apartment and the other 2 blocks away that take you to the Health Education Campus. Parking is not included (most apartments in Cle Heights), but there are a couple spots directly behind the apartment you can pay for, and two city lots just down the street. Washer and Dryer included."

Townhomes

Smaller properties and how to find them

ABOUT TOWNHOMES

Townhomes are apartments in older buildings, typically a few stories tall. They usually do not have a doorman, an elevator, or many amenities, but can be cheaper and more spacious than the apartment and condo units in high-rises.

WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER A TOWNHOME

CHEAPER

LARGER FLOOR PLANS

3+ BEDROOMS AVAILABLE

MORE PRIVACY

WHY YOU MAY WANT TO AVOID A TOWNHOME

NO DOORMAN

LESS CONVENIENT LOCATIONS

OLDER CONSTRUCTION

LIMITED AMENITIES

MORE MAINTENANCE ISSUES

Finding a townhome

Townhomes can be challenging to find because they tend to be individually owned and do not have full time leasing managers. Townhome listings are typically available ~60 days in advance. You can find a townhome by searching online listings, contacting a landlord directly, or by working with VeryApt's Concierge Team who can help identify some options.

Preparing for a townhome search

Most CWRU Med Graduate students opt for larger properties in order to live closer to other students and simplify the housing search. That said, there are plenty of wonderful townhomes - be prepared to visit more properties to find that perfect home, carefully examine the pros/cons, and move quickly if you find a unit you love.

TIPS AND ADVICE

Reliable Landlords

Check online reviews and talk to previous tenants to find out about your landlord. Look for one that responds quickly to maintenance requests and has a history of returning deposits.

Noise and Neighbors

Sounds often travel well through townhomes and you can easily be disturbed by barking dogs, music, or construction. Check out the surrounding area to get a sense for what it may be like.

Lease Terms

Leases with independent landlords are negotiable. Check your lease for restrictions on sub-letters and visitor policies. You may be able to avoid a rent increase by locking in a longer lease.

Landlord Grades

Understanding THE RENTING PROCESS

If this is your first time renting, here is a heads up on what the process is like:

Application process

You will be asked to fill out an application for an apartment. Likely this will include an application fee ($30-50) and potentially a deposit (up to one month's rent). If you're an international student, you may have to provide alternate information - in the absence of a social security number, bank accounts, etc., often landlords will accept your visa documents and acceptance letter. Landlords will use your information to approve you based only on your credit history and income. In the event where there are issues, a landlord may grant the application on the condition that a guarantor cosigns the lease.

After you're approved

A landlord will often ask for a security deposit and prepaid rent. A landlord typically charges up to two months' rent as a security deposit and will ask for up to two months in prepaid rent. Anything beyond this is more than normal. At the end of your lease and after you give proper notification that you are moving out (typically 60-90 days), the landlord has 30 days to return the security deposit at the end of the lease. The landlord may not return the deposit in full if there are claimed damages to the property or other charges outstanding.

What to look out for

Check for additional charges or obligations that could cost you more than the listed price of a property. This could include move-in/move-out fees, renters insurance requirements, condo fees, common electrical fees, etc. Definitely ask about what previous electrical/utility bills have been to get a feel for any additional monthly costs there may be. Be sure to research the landlord and management company before placing any sort of deposit. If you have any specific questions, feel free to reach out to us at contact@veryapt.com.
