

Sponsored by the School of Graduate Studies and the Graduate Student Senate

Call For Nominations

The John S. Diekhoff Award for Distinguished Graduate Teaching

The Diekhoff Award is presented annually by the School of Graduate Studies and the Graduate Student Senate to two full-time faculty members who have made exemplary contributions to graduate education, both inside and outside the classroom. The award, presented at the spring commencement ceremonies, includes a certificate and honorarium. This year, faculty from the following departments will be considered for the award:

Engineering

Aerospace
Biomedical
Chemical Civil
Computer
Computing & Information Sciences
Electrical
Fluid & Thermal
Macromolecular
Materials Sciences
Mechanical
Systems & Control

Sciences

Astronomy
Biology
Chemistry
Geological Sciences
Mathematics
Physics
Statistics

Nominations due on or before 3
March 2006

More info at: <http://www.cwru.edu/orgs/gradsenate/>

Submit nominations of 200 words or less to:

Diekhoff Award Chairman, GSS Diekhoff Award Nominations, School of Graduate Studies, Nord Hall, Floor 6

Or email: gssenate@case.edu with the subject line: "Diekhoff Nomination"