

Intersections SOURCE Symposium & Poster Session

Student Name _____ Reviewer Name _____

Abstract

	5 pts	4pts	3pts	2pts	1pt
Abstract	Contains the relevant information about the study. Succinctly written.	Contains relevant information, but needs to be more concise.	Contains relevant information about the study, but also includes unnecessary information. Needs to be more concise.	Contains more unnecessary information than relevant information. Needs to be more concise.	Lacks relevant information about the study. Needs to be more concise.

Presentation

	5 pts	4pts	3pts	2pts	1pt
Public speaking skills	Speaks clearly and loudly. Makes direct eye contact with audience members throughout presentation. Speaks in a professional tone. Expresses confidence. Stays within allotted time.	Speaks clearly and loudly but does not often make eye contact with audience members.	Speaks loudly and clearly at times but becomes quiet at the end of a sentence. Or speaks too quickly during parts of the presentation. Makes eye contact sporadically.	Consistently speaks quietly or too quickly. Glances over the audience but otherwise does not make eye contact. Has an informal tone.	Mumbles. Reads the slides. Speaks to a point in space. Has an informal tone.
Content	Presents a logical flow of ideas from one point/result to another. Contains a summary slide. Tailors explanations to a general audience. Explains how their work relates to the broader issues in the field. Uses clear and relevant images, movies, and/or animations to illustrate their points.	Presents a logical flow of ideas. Some explanations are unclear. Uses relevant images, movies, and/or animations. Some may be unclear.	Organization is choppy. Some explanations are unclear. Uses jargon suitable for a presentation to peers working in this area. Figures are cluttered and unorganized. Additional figures or images would help illustrate main points.	Hard to determine the presenter's points. Explanations are unclear. Majority of explanatory figures are not relevant or clear. Needs additional figures. Important details are missing.	Presentation is a jumble of random thoughts. Explanations are unclear. Leaves out important details or issues. Gratuitous use of PowerPoint animation. Few illustrative figures. Many slides are filled with bulleted text.

Discussion

	5 pts	4pts	3pts	2pts	1pt
Question/ Answer Session	Directly answers all questions. Is confident and knowledgeable.	Answers questions but is weak in one area of questioning (ex. methods)	Answers most questions but becomes defensive or glib.	Is unable to answer several of the audience's questions.	Bluffs answers. Responds in a condescending tone.

Please add your comments on the back. Return form to Meeting Room A. Thanks!